Back Up For A Fallen Officer

Letter to the Editor:

I am addressing members of the community, what I am requesting is "Back up, for a fallen officer." My father was Chief of Police, Leoti, KS. His name was Carl A. Simons, he was murdered in the line of duty 5-25-76.

You may be asking why would I be wanting "Back Up" for a deceased officer 47 years after his murder? The convict that murdered the officer in the line of duty was apprehended, put on trial, and found guilty of capital murder. He was sentenced to life imprisonment, after serving 25 years he became eligible for parole. Our family has been present at each hearing protesting/objecting to his possible release. Each time being successful with the board giving five to seven years then three to five years more before eligibility for parole again. The cited reasons each time. Number of objections, seriousness of the crime and the violent nature of the crime.

The convict came up for parole once again this year in March, however for reasons not given to our family the parole board only gave the convict seven more months and he gets another hearing in August.

For our family we have open wounds repeatedly of the horrendous night of May 25,1976. The months of pain/horror of the funeral, pre-trial motions and two trials to put the animal who took a husband, father, and a vital member of society from us and the community he served behind bars where he belonged.

There needs to be some important background supplied regarding this crime. 1. At the time of the murder he was on parole for two felony convictions. 2. The convict made his 12-year-old daughter participate in the shooting death of Chief Simons. She was a key witness for the state at trial. The daughter was forced to do so; our family bears no ill will toward her. 3. To this day the convict blames the officer/victim (my dad) for his own murder. 4. The murder was premeditated.

What's the goal of this appeal by our family? To overwhelm the parole board with objections/comments regarding the possible parole of this convict.

The prison system now refers to all inmates in the system as "residents." This term is offensive to victims and families of victims.

For those inclined to, able to, or desire to express your feelings/opinions regarding the possible parole are encouraged to send them to the following address/email. You must include RE: Richard M. McCowan KDOC #0008144 on any correspondence sent.

Office of Victim Services

Topeka, KS 66603
Email: KCOC_Victim_Notifications@ks.gov
Phone: 866-404-6732

My personal feeling is that this convict took Chief Simons (my dad) life in cold blood. He should forfeit the remainder of his life behind bars where he belongs.

Our family thanks everyone for their thoughts and prayers but we need your help by responding to the parole board by telling them NO PAROLE KDOC #0008144!

Please help us in our continued battle for justice for Chief of Police Carl A. Simons killed in the line of duty on May 25,1976.

Thank you,
Carlisa J. Simon
