"I am pleased that we have reached this amazing milestone – being able to provide the gift of reading for children and families across Kansas," said Gov. Kelly. "We know that a child's first five years are critical for health development and childhood literacy. By increasing access to the Imagination Library, we will be nurturing a love for reading and supporting the foundation of a child's social-emotional, physical, and cognitive future. I urge all eligible appropriate books directly to children's homes each month. Each child enrolled in the program receives one book per month until their fifth birthday, at no cost to families. The program's impact has been widely researched, and results suggest positive increases in key early childhood literacy metrics. Penguin Random House is the exclusive publisher of Dolly Parton's Imagination Library. For more information, please visit imaginationlibrary.com.
