Lions outscored Skyline 15-10 to open up a 35-25 lead at halftime.

Kevin Soto was strong in the third quarter with seven points as the Lions increased their lead to 11, 49-38.

Seven Lions combined for 21 fourth-quarter points as the Lions secured their third victory of the season.

In addition to Campbell's 17 points, Schmidt scored 13, Soto and Luck each had 11, Deacon Showalgter and Edwin Rodriguez each had six, Stone Starbuck had four and Xavier Solis finished with two.

The Lions will return to the court on Jan. 6 when they play the Sedgwick Cardinals in Sedgwick. Game time is set for 7:30 p.m.

Lyons 69, Canton-Galva 61

The Lyons Lions basketball team Tuesday traveled to Canton to play the Class 1A No. 5 ranked Canton-Galva Eagles.

After losing three games to state ranked teams at the Moundridge Preseason Tournament, the Lions found themselves facing another quality early-season opponent but against one in which they have had considerable success. Entering Tuesday's game the Lions were 6-0 all-time against the Eagles including the last four games dating back to the 2018 season.

Playing in a game that seemed to be an opportune time to end their current three-game losing streak, the Lions found themselves on the wrong end of a 22-point deficit early in the second quarter.

However, junior guard Taylor Campbell played the best game of his high school career to pour in 32 points and four other Lions scored at least seven to power the Lions past a fading Eagle team to an unexpected 69-61 victory.

After the Eagles had taken a 36-14 lead with less than 5:00 to play in the first half, Campbell made the first of his four three-pointers to end a 22-4 Eagle run to cut the deficit to 19, 36-17.

Campbell hit one more three-pointer as did Sam Schmidt and Ethan Luck during a 13-4 Lyons' run to trail only by 10 at halftime, 40-30. Campbell finished the first half with 14 points.

The Lions began the second half with four quick points to pull within six but fell behind by eight midway through the third quarter, 42-34. In back and forth fashion, the Lions whittled the Eagles lead back to four, 45-41, only to be outscored 7-4 and trail 52-45 entering the fourth quarter.

The Lions, with momentum on their side, continued their comeback in the final quarter. Kevin Soto scored four points and Campbell added two as the Lions cut the lead to one 52-51, the first time they were within one point since the first quarter.

The Eagles put up one last fight and were able get the lead back to five, 57-52, with less than 5:00 left in the game but it was not enough.

Campbell scored seven points and Soto added three during an 11-4 Lyons run that was capped by a two-point basket by Luck to give the Lions their first lead since the first half, 63-61. Campbell scored two points and Schmidt hit four key free throws in the final 1:25 of the game to complete a remarkable comeback to earn their second victory of the year.

Coach Sam Schmidt, after the game, was at a loss for words but was very elated with the effort of his team.

"I'm not exactly sure what to say or how to explain how that happened," Schmidt said. "I'm just very thankful and proud of these guys."

The Lions outscored Canton-Galva 25-9 in the fourth quarter and were led by Campbell with 11 of his 32 points and Kevin Soto who scored seven of his 11 points. Schmidt finished the game with nine, Edwin Rodriguez had eight, Luck contributed seven and Deacon Showalter finished with two.

Schmidt said it was amazing to see how hard his kids fought throughout the game and never gave up, even when they were down by 22 points. It is moments like these he and his staff work to prepare the team for and he said it was nice to see their hard work pay off.

"I keep preaching it in our practices and to see it come to fruition in a battle like that, it's just really gratifying," he said.

Peyton Kruse scored five points in the second quarter and the Lady Thunderbirds scored their only point on a free throw with two seconds left in the half as the Lady Lions opened up a commanding 26-5 lead.

Boyd scored nine of her 10 points in the third quarter and Lyons held Skyline to eight points to open up their biggest lead of the game, 43-13.

Skyline outscored Lyons, 11-4, in the final quarter but it was not nearly enough as the Lady Lions improved to 4-2 on the season.

Belote led the Lady Lions in scoring with 14 points. She was followed by Boyd with 10, Ramirez with nine, Kruse with five, Mya Fierro with four, Sarahy Carrera with three, and Jocelyn Vargas with two.

The next game for the Lady Lions will be on Jan. 6 when they travel to Sedgwick to take on the Lady Cardinals. Game time is set for 6 p.m.

Lyons 35, Canton-Galva 30

After securing two wins in the Moundridge Preseason Tournament, the Lyons Lady Lions traveled to Canton to play the Canton-Galva Lady Eagles. Lyons had never lost in six games with the Lady Eagles and they hoped to make it seven straight Tuesday.

In a low-scoring game Lyons had difficulties overcoming turnovers and fouls and never led by more than sevenpoints.

However, four Lady Lions scored at least six points and they never trailed once on their way to a 35-30 victory.

After scoring the first seven points of the game to build a 7-0 lead, the Lady Lions went cold and did not score again until Caitlyn Belote made one free throw with less than six minutes left in the first half to increase their lead to 8-4. Canton-Galva outscored the Lady Lions 8-4 in the remainder of the half to get the game tied at 12-12.

Leading scorer Caitlyn Belote scored five points in the third quarter and the Lady Lions held Canton to seven to regain the lead, 22-19.

Belote finished the game by scoring six points in the fourth quarter as the Lady Lions won the quarter 13-11 to hold on for their third victory of the season.

Belote led the Lions with 14 points. She was followed by Nevaeh Boyd with eight, Mya Fierro and Yamyle Ramirez each with six and Jocelyn Vargas with two.

Lions perfect for Christmas

Lyons girls have put an accent on the holiday break, winning 51-36 Friday in MCAA basketball at Smoky Valley in Lindsborg.

Going into the game the Lions served notice they intended to come out 6-0 by doubling the score on the Vikings in the opening minutes and then moving on to a 27-14 lead at the half. By the time the fourth period arrived the Lions had a comfortable 17 point edge.

"We played pretty well," Coach Lonnie Morris said. "It was a total team effort."

So was it a benefit to meeting some goals the coach and players had set. "We have some things we have to work on over the next couple of weeks, but this makes it a lot easier to focus."

The Lions are facing a tough schedule ahead, with an assessment made in preseason by Morris that is coming true. He said from the beginning that the Mid-Central Activities Association has exceptional balance among girls teams and so far evidence bears it out. "Even Collegiate which hasn't won yet, has played several close games. We can't take anyone for granted."

In particular there is Haven, considered a league powerhouse and a potential stumbling block for the co-defending champion Lions. Hillsboro was another team representing the top of the MCAA class "and Sterling beat them Friday"

Maggie Proffitt and Tracy Schmidt were in the doubles for Lyons at 18 and 12 points, and leading the Vikings was Hodges with 10.

Scoring: Lyons - Tina Steffan 5, Tracy Schmidt 12, Whitehead 5. Jenny McAllaster 6. Heidi Heinrichs 5 and Maggie Proffitt 18

Festive settings for music programs

The Lyons High School vocal music department will present it's annual Christmas concert Thursday, December 21 at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Candles and wreaths will form a festive setting for the young singers directed by Don Janzen.

The program will begin with the concert choir singing "Christmas Calypso," "Gloria in Excelsis," "A Christmas Wish," and "Alleluia Sing." They will be accompanied by Diane LeClerc.

The Lyonaires will present "Go Tell it on the Mountain," "What You Gonna Call Yo Pretty Little Baby," and "Straw Carol." The boys ensemble will present "Behold that Star," with Alan Ebright as soloist. "Christmas Is" and "Christmas Is A Birthday" will be sung by the mixed choir.

The freshmen-sophomore girls ensemble, as well as the junior-senior girls group will sing several numbers each. They will be accompanied by Kevin Schemm and Ed Hicks.

A feature of the program will be the rendition by the concert and mixed choruses of "The Christmas Story" from the Bible, composed and arranged by Joseph Roff. A colored film strip depicting the paintings of the old masters will illustrate the Christmas story to coincide with the auditory message. Mrs Don Janzen will serve as narrator and Elaine Snyder will accompany on the piano.

The program will close with the popular favorites from Handel's Messiah: "And the Glory of the Lord," and the "Hallelujah Chorus." Alumni are invited to participate in this segment.

Community Entertainment

The city hall has been beautifully decorated for the annual free community Christmas entertainment this evening to which everyone is invited.

Promptly at 7:30 the Lyons K. of P. band will start on a half hour concert which will be followed by a community sing and a program of recitations and songs by school children.

Alvin Long stated this morning that no set program could be announced as all the details had not yet been definitely decided.

As the crowd passes out each one will receive a big popcorn ball as a Christmas treat
