Shari:

How ignominious of me! I am mortified at my misdeed. Please accept my apology for the tardiness of this City Budget getting to you.

There was a special meeting held August 13 to discuss and pass this item, which was done. I put it with the other papers to be taken care of, and that is when the problem arose. I was called out of state for a death and completely forgot about this budget. I was gone for over a week handling an estate for which I am the trustee, and when I returned, I have been playing "catch-up" continuously. This is something which should not have been caught up, but sent off soon after signing. My error, and I apologize for the gross error.

Maybe this will get me fired, then I can catch some rest from two jobs, an elderly Mother who is dingier each day (it's rubbing off on me!), housework, chores outdoors and an estate, out of state!!!

Thank you, and I am truly sorry I have been so dilatory in this matter.

Monte W. Bowen, Clerk
