Prior to the hearing, the parties reached a settlement and requested dismissal of the case.

Dismissal

affirmed

Master Trooper, Kansas Highway Patrol

Appellant was dismissed after being convicted of Aggravated Assault (severity level 7, person felony); Criminal Threat (severity level 9, person felony); Criminal Threat (severity level 9, person felony); and Domestic Battery. The jury entered a special finding that all four counts were “an act of domestic violence.” The KHP filed a motion for summary judgment and the appellant responded. The Board granted the KHP’s motion finding that there was no material issue of factual dispute that the appellant’s felony convictions prevented him from performing the essential functions of his position. The decision of the appointing authority was affirmed.

Engineering Technician Specialist, Department of Transportation

Appellant was dismissed as the result of being unable to perform his job duties. Specifically, he was arrested for driving under the influence. His license was suspended for a year and then he was required to operate a motor vehicle with an ignition interlock device for an additional year. A prehearing conference was held and a prehearing order was entered setting forth deadlines agreed to by the parties. Appellant did not comply with one of the deadlines.
