FOR REFERENCE ONLY – NOT FOR SUBMITTAL

State of Kansas - Is a Code Footprint Required to be Submitted to DCC?

Department of Administration, OFPM-DCC

Applicable to Buildings on STATE of KANSAS Property only

If an answer is yes to any of the items below, a code footprint is required to be submitted per Part A - Chapter 5 of the Building Design and Construction Manual.

	Yes	No	Uncertain
Is this a new building?	☐	☐	☐
Is the existing building or a portion of the existing building changing occupancy? If you mark uncertain, please provide the following information:	☐	☐	☐
Existing occupancy/use description: _____
Proposed occupancy/use description: _____
Is this an addition to an existing building?	☐	☐	☐

Does the work affect one of the following in an existing building? Is one of the following new work in an existing building?

Sprinkler, standpipe, fire pump?	☐	☐	☐
Fire Alarm?	☐	☐	☐
Emergency Lighting and or Emergency Power Source?	☐	☐	☐
Increased occupancy of the building or portion of the building?	☐	☐	☐
Existing and/or new fire-rated wall or openings/penetrations thereof (ie. MEP penetrations, walls, doors etc.)– occupancy separation, incidental use separation, fire area separation, fire wall (building separation), corridor, exit enclosure/exit passageway, smoke compartment?	☐	☐	☐
Change or modification of exit access, exit or exit discharge?	☐	☐	☐
Is the work to be considered as an alternate means or method for design/construction?	☐	☐	☐
Is the work for OSFM citations or OSFM plan of correction?	☐	☐	☐