

KENNETH A. HERRING

Ken is one of our attorneys, focusing on Medicaid, resources for veterans, and estate planning. Ken's goal is to help individuals and families protect their assets when they face challenging and uncertain decisions about their future. He has been a featured speaker and is a trusted resource on the needs of the senior community, particularly in the areas of estate and financial planning, specifically, the importance of powers of attorney, wills, trusts, joint property, living wills, guardianship and conservatorship and investments.

Ken previously served as Senior Vice President in the Personal Trust and Probate Division of UMB Bank. While pursuing a degree in government and management from Evangel University, Springfield, Missouri, he served as an intern for United States Senator Lawton Chiles. His law degree is from the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law. Ken is a member of the Missouri Bar Association, serving as an active member of the probate and trust committee, and served as Chairman of the Trust and Probate Committee.

In his free time Ken follows the Kansas City Royals, Kansas City Chiefs, college football and basketball. He also enjoys golf, travel and photography.
