

KANSAS LEGISLATIVE DIVISION of
POST AUDIT

Chris Clarke was appointed Legislative Post Auditor (Kansas) in December 2021. Chris started with the Division as a staff auditor in 1995 and has served many roles in her 29 years with the office. In addition to her role in Kansas, Chris works with national organizations to identify emerging audit issues and explore further innovation. Chris serves on several committees for National Association of State Auditors, Comptrollers and Treasurers and the National State Auditors Association. These committees include Communications, Human Resources, Performance Audit, and Audit Standards and Reporting. She also was recently appointed to the national Governmental Accounting Standards Advisory Council. She holds a J. D. from St. Louis University Law School, and a B.S. in Business Administration from the University of Kansas.
