LEVELS OF WORK

- Class Group consists of four classes.

Juvenile Corrections Officer I (A): This class is an entry level position. Incumbents maintain safety and security of juvenile offenders, staff, and the community by supervising the conduct, work, discipline, and recreation of offenders. Work involves teaching juvenile offenders accountability, competency development and reintegration techniques.

Minimum Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent.

Necessary Special Requirements: Candidates must have reached their 21st birthday at the time of appointment; be free of felony conviction; successful completion of a physical agility test and written assessment administered by the facility; confirmation that candidate is not on the Child Abuse Registry; and take and pass a drug test approved by the Office of Personnel Services prior to being appointed to this position unless the incumbent is moving from one safety-sensitive position to another safety-sensitive position within the same agency performing substantially similar duties. Some positions in this class require that, at the time of appointment, the candidate possess a valid license.

Juvenile Corrections Officer I (B): This is full performance work maintaining safety and security of juvenile offenders, staff, and the community by supervising the conduct, work, discipline, and recreation of offenders. Work involves teaching juvenile offenders accountability, competency development and reintegration techniques. This level acts as a role model and leader of less experienced juvenile corrections officers by explaining work methods and instructions, assisting in training, demonstrating awareness of and proper compliance with the Department's and the facility's policies, procedures and orders as well as with federal, state and local laws.

Minimum Requirements: Must meet all of the minimum qualifications and necessary special requirements of a Juvenile Corrections Officer I (A) and successfully complete one year of experience as a Juvenile Corrections Officer I (A) within the Department of Corrections immediately prior to appointment to this class.

Juvenile Corrections Officer II: This is full-range supervisory work. Incumbents plan, organize, direct and evaluate the activities of the unit on an assigned shift. Incumbents are responsible for performance evaluations and on-going development and mentoring of staff. Determines what security measures are required to restrain offenders who are exhibiting dangerous and destructive behavior; directs the actions of staff members to intervene and eliminate destructive behavior.
